

How to Apply

Eligibility

Current graduate students from U.S. schools or those who have just completed their graduate studies in the past two years may apply.

Non-US citizens are welcome to apply, as long as they are a student or a recent graduate of an American art program. Please note that if a non-US citizen is selected, the AAF is not responsible for fees associated with acquiring the necessary visa, etc.

Application Requirements & Deadlines

Please submit your complete application postmarked no later than APRIL 25, 2025. Applications submitted via email must be sent to finearts.prize@americaaustrianfoundation.org by 5:00pm EST on APRIL 25, 2025.

Please send the following documents to the AAF:

- Application form, including a recent photo of yourself (see downloads below)

Incomplete applications will not be submitted to the jury. The AAF and Salzburg International Summer Academy are not responsible for lost applications.

Details

The American Austrian Foundation has administered this program since 2000. It is funded through the generosity of AAF Board Member Gerhard Seebacher and his wife Angelika. A jury chaired by Dr. Hildegund Amanshauser, the Director of the Salzburg International Summer Academy, will select the AAF/Seebacher Fellows.

The fellowship covers Summer Academy tuition, up to $1,500 of travel expenses, accommodation at Schloss Arenberg, and a stipend for meals.

Within one month after completion of the fellowship, each recipient is required to send a final report to the AAF: finearts.prize@americaaustrianfoundation.org.

No telephone inquiries, all questions must be submitted via email only.
