

Robert Wessely is the senior partner in the international and corporate practices at Greenspoon Marder LLP, a national law firm with offices throughout the United States.

He has extensive experience in providing strategic and structural advice on cross-border mergers and acquisitions, private equity transactions, venture capital, joint ventures, financing, restructuring, and licensing transactions. While his client base is worldwide, he has particular expertise in representing Central and Eastern European companies in cross-border transactions in the U.S., Europe, and Asia.

Integral to Mr. Wessely's corporate practice is his experience in real estate law, media & entertainment, offshore funds, investment vehicles, energy, and intellectual property matters.

Mr. Wessely is a graduate of the University of Illinois and the University of Vienna, Austria. He obtained his J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School. While at the University of Vienna, he conducted a study for the International Atomic Energy Agency. He speaks almost fluent German, which he learned while residing with his Viennese grandmother.

He joined the AAF Board in June 2015, and became President in 2017.
